

DECEMBER 2000-
JANUARY 2001

TERRORISM

REVIEW

~~SECRET~~

TIER
2/22

(b)(1)
(b)(3)

7FB7 ES
CIADI TR 2001-01H

~~SECRET~~

DI TR 2001-01H
December 2000-
January 2001

Copy 0339

~~Secret~~

On 18 December near Wuka, a bomb placed inside a bus exploded, killing four persons and injuring 12 others, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility.

Pakistan

On 2 November in Rawalpindi, a bomb exploded in a public toilet, injuring 17 persons, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility.

On 6 November in Karachi, a bomb placed at a newspaper office exploded, killing two persons and injuring six others, according to press reports. The hospital next door also was damaged. No one claimed responsibility.

On 27 November in Chandani Chowk, a bomb exploded at a bazaar, injuring 12 persons and causing an undetermined amount of damage, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility.

On 27 November in Muridke, a bomb placed under a small cart exploded, killing two persons and injuring 26 others, The Lashkar-e-Tayyiba is probably responsible.

On 25 December in Lahore, a bomb placed at the Delhi Gate Market exploded, injuring 32 persons, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility.

On 25 December in Hyderabad, a bomb placed on a bus exploded, injuring six persons, No one claimed responsibility.

Philippines

On 12 November in Koronadal, militants fired on several wooden huts, killing five persons, according to press reports. The Abu Sayyaf Group is probably responsible.

On 18 November in Zamboanga, a bomb exploded in a public market, injuring three persons, according to press reports. The Moro Islamic Liberation Front is probably responsible.

Sri Lanka

On 28 November in Anuradhapura, a bus carrying 31 persons hit a landmine, killing seven and injuring 24 others, according to press reporting. The Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) are probably responsible.

On 14 December in Eravur, a bomb at a government school exploded, killing two persons and wounding two policemen, according to press reports. The LTTE are probably responsible.

EurasiaBulgaria

On 5 December in Sofia, police safely defused a suspicious package found by restaurant employees, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility.

Russia

On 4 November in Chechnya, unidentified militants blew up a high pressure gas pipeline, according to press reports. No one claimed responsibility.

~~Secret~~